Networking for Academic and Professional Success: Identify People and Networks

1. List people who are already important members of your network. These are people you rely on for input, advice, and resources.

2. Who do you want to add to your network? List them and circle their names.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Peers</th>
<th>More Experienced</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>IST Austria</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elsewhere</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
What are you going to do to build or activate your network?

In the next week:

In the next month:

In the next year:

Resources:

http://gradlogic.org/why-network
http://gradlogic.org/networking-3-directions
http://gradlogic.org/four-i-networking